

1908, ch. 139, sec. 7 (p. 1086).

124. It shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquor except in writing, or in any case unless the person for whom it is issued is actually sick or such liquor actually is required as a medicine. Every prescription for intoxicating liquor shall contain the name, quantity of liquor prescribed, the name of the person for whom prescribed, the date on which the prescription is written, and direction for the use of the liquor so prescribed. And the said prescription shall contain the hour or exact time that it was written; and it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician who has been convicted of issuing verbal prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, or of issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, knowing the same to be for use as a beverage, or of issuing prescriptions that do not in form comply with this Act, thereafter to issue any prescription for intoxicating liquor for any purpose for a period of two years from the date of such conviction. Every prescription issued in violation of the provision hereof shall be held to be an unlawful selling and on conviction thereof the person issuing same shall be punished accordingly.

125. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to forbid or prevent the sale within Wicomico county by a druggist or pharmacist of liquor for medical or sacramental purposes only, or of alcohol for medicinal, chemical or mechanical purposes only, not to be drunk upon the premises under any circumstances; provided, the following requirements are fully complied with and such druggist or pharmacist, in good faith shall keep a true and exact record in a book which he shall provide for the purpose, in which shall be entered at the time of every sale of intoxicating liquor made by him, or in or about his place of business to all persons whomsoever, the date of such sale and the hour thereof, the name of the purchaser, who shall also sign his name in said book as a part of said entry, and his residence, stating the street and house number if there be such; the kind, quantity and price of such liquor, the purpose for which it was sold; and when the sale is for medicinal purposes, the book shall also contain the name of the physician issuing the prescription therefor. Such prescriptions shall be cancelled by writing on it the word "cancelled" and the date and the hour on which it was presented and filled, and kept on file. No prescription shall be filled a second time. Such book shall be in form substantially as follows:

Date and Hour	Name of Purchaser	Residence	Kind and Quantity	Purpose of Use	Price	Name of Physician	Signature of Purchaser
